
CARRIAGE OF MEDICAL EQUIPMENT

Airnorth aircraft do not have electrical power supply available for medical equipment use during flight. Airnorth will carry all approved medical equipment in accordance with the Airnorth Dangerous Goods Manual.

If electrical then the medical equipment must be battery powered. Batteries must be non spillable.

Questions regarding the carriage of battery powered medical equipment can be directed to the Safety and Compliance Department.