2014 Airnorth Kimberley Moon Experience line-up announced

Airnorth are very proud to sponsor the Airnorth Kimberley Moon Experience for 2014, held on Saturday 24 May at the James Hughes Amphitheatre on the banks of the Ord River in Kununurra. Airnorth has been sponsoring the Kimberley Moon Experience since 2006 and prior to that, naming right sponsor of the "Airnorth Ord Valley Muster" from 2003-2005.

This year's event will be headlined by award winning, Perth-based band ESKIMO JOE and will feature a line-up of Aussie greats, including THE WAIFS, JOHN WILLIAMSON and other local acts including Broome bane 42 DECIBEL.

Eskimo Joe, one of Australia's biggest bands, successfully straddling mainstream commercial success, while managing to keep their Alternative Music roots secure.

The Waifs, after a couple of years resting from their global travels including touring with Bob Dylan, The Waifs are now ready to pack their van and reunite for a special run of concerts starting with the 2014 Airnorth Kimberley Moon Experience.

John Williamson, Country-music singer-songwriter, John Williamson is, without question, an Australian icon. His voice and sound is as recognisable and important to Australia as the Southern Cross is to the flag.

42 Decibel, are a rocking 3 piece band of amazing musicians playing 9 instruments between them. Multi-instrumentalism is what this band is all about.

In its 11th year the Airnorth Kimberley Moon Experience is set to be another magical night under the stars and tickets are on sale now from Ticketmaster.

Airnorth have added extra flights to their schedule over the Kimberley Moon Experience weekend. Visit their website timetable for full details or to book flights now.
