

AVIATION ENGINEERING – STORES & LOGISTICS

Airnorth is a progressive and expanding business and is well positioned in this dynamic market sector and seeking enthusiastic people to join the Stores & Logistics facility within our Engineering Team.

STORES PERSON

This integral role includes responsibility for:-

- Receipting, dispatching, purchasing, monitoring and verifying stock movements; orders; repairs and suppliers both nationally and internationally;
- Import and export administration of aircraft parts;
- Maintenance of storage facilities and stock holdings; and
- Component management and reporting.

To be successful in this role, you will demonstrate:

- Demonstrated organizational skills with timely and accurate data entry skills;
- Excellent communication and customer service skills;
- Intermediate user of Microsoft Office (Word & Excel) & web based applications;
- Self-motivated and ability to work with minimal supervision; and
- Hold a current driver's and forklift license.
- Be able to hold and maintain an Aviation Identification Security Card.

Previous experience working in a logistics role in an operational/engineering oriented environment and/or a Certificate in Warehousing & Storage would be highly regarded.

TRAINEE STORES PERSON

An opportunity to enter the Aviation Industry for a motivated person willing to be trained as Aviation Store Person; Certificate in Warehousing and Storage. Year 12 pass will be highly regarded but not essential. Applicants must have a genuine interest in the field, have Australian Citizenship and be residents of Darwin. If you are looking for a challenging career in an exciting organisation & industry, apply to:

Email your CV to humanresources@airnorth.com.au
Application Close date 16 January 2012

www.airnorth.com.au